PROPOSAL 1 TEXT

Section 3-122. Salary Commission --

2. The commission shall convene annually no later than the first day of February, and shall, after public hearing, establish salaries and salary schedules no later than the first day of May subsequent thereto, said salaries and salary schedules to be effective prospectively from the first day of the fiscal year subsequent to their adoption by the commission. The commission may meet at other times during the year pursuant to its own rules, but may alter salaries and salary schedules no more than once annually. Any action of the commission altering salaries shall be by resolution accompanied by findings of fact. Said resolution shall be forwarded to the mayor and the council, [but shall take effect without their concurrence sixty calendar days after its adoption unless rejected by a three-quarters vote of the council's entire membership. The council may reject either the entire resolution or any portion of it.]

PROPOSAL 1 NOTES:

No changes.

PROPOSAL 5 TEXT

Section 13-116. City Elections --

1. In general: City elections shall be conducted in accordance with the election laws of the state insofar as applicable, but all city elective officers shall be elected by nonpartisan special elections. Except as otherwise provided in this charter, such special elections shall be held in conjunction with the primary and general elections of the applicable year[.]; a special election held in conjunction with the primary election shall be designated the first special election and a special election held in conjunction with the general election shall be designated the second special election. In the case of the council, such special elections shall be held in 2002 and every second year thereafter. In the case of the mayor and the prosecuting attorney, such special elections shall be held every fourth year following the 1992 election.

2. [First special election: In the case of the offices of mayor, prosecuting attorney or councilmember, any candidate receiving a majority of the votes cast for that office shall be deemed elected. However, if there is no more than one candidate for each of the offices of mayor, prosecuting attorney or councilmember, such persons shall be deemed elected regardless of the number of votes received.]

3. Second special election: Unless a candidate for mayor, prosecuting attorney, or councilmember is elected in the first special election, the names of the two candidates receiving the highest number of votes for these offices in the first special election shall be placed on the ballot for the second special election. At the second special election the candidates receiving the highest number of votes for mayor, prosecuting attorney and councilmember, respectively, shall be deemed elected.]

Special elections:

- (a) If there is no more than one candidate for any city elective office, then the name of that candidate shall be placed on the ballot for the first special election. The candidate shall be deemed elected at the first special election regardless of the number of votes received.
- (b) If there are only two candidates for any city elective office, the names of the two candidates shall be placed on the ballot for the second special election. At the second special election, the candidate receiving the highest number of votes cast for that office shall be deemed elected.
- (c) If there are three or more candidates for any city elective office, the names of the candidates shall be placed on the ballot for the first special election. If any candidate receives a majority of votes cast in the first special election for that office, that candidate shall be deemed elected. However, if no candidate receives a majority of votes cast in the first special election for that office, then the names of the two candidates receiving the highest number of votes cast for that office shall be placed on the ballot for the second special election. At the second special election, the candidate receiving the highest number of votes cast for that office shall be deemed elected.

PROPOSAL 5 NOTES:

- Added the word “cast” in three places in paragraphs (b) and (c) for consistency
- Replaced “he or she” with “that candidate” in paragraph (c)

PROPOSAL 27 TEXT

SECTION 1. Section 6-207, Revised Charter of the City and County of Honolulu 1973, as amended, is further amended to read as follows:

Section 6-207. Liquor Commission --

The organization and the duties and functions of the liquor commission of the City and County of Honolulu shall be as provided by law, except that the commission shall be attached to the department of budget and fiscal services[.]; and the liquor control administrator and deputy liquor control administrator shall be exempt from civil service in accordance with Section 6-1103 and shall be appointed and may be removed in accordance with this section.

The liquor commission shall appoint and may remove a liquor control administrator, who shall serve as the administrative head of the commission staff and be subject to the policies and directions of the commission. The commission shall set the salary of the administrator.

The liquor control administrator may appoint and remove a deputy liquor control administrator, who shall serve as the first deputy to the administrator. The commission shall set the salary of the deputy.

The liquor control administrator may hire and remove other staff in accordance with applicable law. The salaries of the staff shall be set in accordance with applicable law.

SECTION 2. Section 6-1103, Revised Charter of the City and County of Honolulu 1973, as amended, is further amended to read as follows:

Section 6-1103. Civil Service and Executive Branch Exemptions --

The provisions of this chapter of the charter shall apply to all positions in the service of the executive branch. This section shall apply to semi-autonomous agencies as though they are departments of the executive branch. The following positions shall be exempt from the provisions of this chapter of the charter:

(a) Positions of officers elected by public vote; positions of heads of departments; the position of the band director of the Royal Hawaiian Band; the position of the manager and chief engineer of the board of water supply and the manager of any semi-autonomous agency created by ordinance; and the position of the liquor control administrator of the liquor commission.

(b) Positions in the office of the mayor, but such positions shall be included in the position classification plan. Employees of the civil defense agency and Royal Hawaiian Band, other than the band director, shall not be exempted from civil service.

(c) Positions of deputies of the corporation counsel, deputies and administrative or executive assistants of the prosecuting attorney and law clerks.

(d) Positions of members of any board, commission or equivalent body.

(e) Positions of a temporary nature filled by students.

(f) Personal services obtained by contract where the director has certified that the service is special or unique, is essential to the public interest and that, because of circumstances surrounding its fulfillment, personnel to perform such service cannot be obtained through normal civil service recruitment procedures. Any such contract may be for any period not exceeding one year.

(g) Personal services of a temporary nature needed in the public interest where the need for the same does not exceed one year, but before any person may be employed to render such temporary service, the director of human resources shall certify that the service is of a temporary nature and that recruitment through normal civil service recruitment procedures is not practicable.

(h) Personal services performed on a fee, contract or piecework basis by persons who may lawfully perform their duties concurrently with their private business or profession or other private employment, if any, and whose duties require only a portion of their time, where it is impracticable to ascertain or anticipate the portion of time devoted to the service of the city and when such fact is certified to by the director of human resources.

(i) Positions of one first deputy; and for the Honolulu Police Department one additional deputy; private secretaries to heads of departments and their deputies; and the position of managing director, one first deputy and private secretaries to each; [but] and the position of deputy liquor control administrator; provided that private secretarial positions shall be included in the position classification plan. The first deputy in the department of human resources, however, shall not be exempt from civil service.

(j) Positions or personal services in demonstration programs and joint participation and special projects which serve the community; provided that such exemptions are required by federal law or rules and regulations and then in accordance with procedures established by ordinance.

The director of human resources shall determine the applicability of this section of the charter to specific employment or services in the executive branch.

SECTION 3. Article XVI, Revised Charter of the City and County of Honolulu 1973, as amended, is further amended by adding a new section to be appropriately designated and to read as follows:

Section 16- . Transition Provisions for Liquor Control Administrator and Deputy Administrator—

1. From July 1, 2007, the positions of the liquor control administrator and deputy liquor control administrator shall be exempt from civil service.

2. The incumbents filling the positions of liquor control administrator and deputy liquor control administrator on June 30, 2007 shall be terminated from the positions at the end of that day. Their right to another civil service position shall be subject to applicable civil service rules.

The incumbents shall suffer no loss of vacation allowance, sick leave, service credits, retirement benefits, or other rights and privileges because of their termination under this subsection. If they continue in other civil service positions following termination, nothing in this subsection shall be construed as preventing future changes in their status pursuant to the civil service provisions of this charter.

Nothing in this subsection shall be construed as disqualifying the terminated incumbents from serving as the liquor control administrator or deputy liquor control administrator after June 30, 2007. They may be appointed to those positions in accordance with Section 6-207.

3. The liquor commission may appoint a person to the position of liquor control administrator before July 1, 2007, but any appointment shall take effect on that date.

SECTION 4. Sections 1 and 2 shall take effect on July 1, 2007 and Section 3 and this section shall take effect upon ratification by the electorate.

PROPOSAL 27 NOTES:

- Added a semicolon to Section 6-1103 paragraph (a)
- Deleted numerical designations in Section 6-207
- Corporation Counsel is researching the transition provisions

PROPOSAL 28 TEXT

Section 11-106, Revised Charter of Honolulu, would be amended as follows:

Section 11-106. Penalties and Disciplinary Action for Violations --

The failure to comply with or any violation of the standards of conduct established by this article of the charter or by ordinance shall be grounds for impeachment of elected officers and for the removal from office or from employment of all other officers and employees. The appointing authority may, upon the recommendation of the ethics commission, reprimand, put on probation, demote, suspend or discharge an employee found to have violated the standards of conduct established by this article of the charter or by ordinance. The ethics commission may also impose civil fines established by ordinance for violations of the standards of conduct committed by elected officials of the city.

Section 11-107, Revised Charter of Honolulu (RCH), would similarly be amended in the last paragraph:

Section 11-107. Ethics Commission –

* * *

The commission may impose civil fines, established by ordinance, against elected officials of the city found to have violated the standards of conduct established by this article of the charter or by ordinance. The commission shall recommend appropriate disciplinary action against officers and employees found to have violated the standards of conduct established by this article of the charter or by ordinance. The appointing authority shall promptly notify the commission of the action taken on the recommendation.

PROPOSAL 28 NOTES:

Section 11-107. Ethics Commission –

There shall be within the department of the corporation counsel for administrative purposes only an ethics commission which shall consist of seven members. The commission shall be governed by the provisions of Section 13-103 of this charter. In accordance with the prohibition in Hawaii Constitution Article XIV, the members of the ethics commission shall be prohibited from taking an active part in political management or in political campaigns.

The commission may appoint such staff and engage consultants as is necessary to assist it in the performance of its duties. Such staff and consultants may include attorneys who may advise the commission independently of the department of the corporation counsel. All staff positions shall be exempt from the provisions of Chapter 11 of Article VI of this charter, but such staff positions, except the position of executive director, shall be included in the position classification plan. The executive director shall be an attorney qualified to practice law in the State of Hawaii. The salary of the executive director shall be fixed by ordinance.

The commission is authorized to hold hearings and to conduct investigations concerning the application of this article of the charter and shall have the powers provided in Section 13-114 of this charter.

The commission may, on its own initiative, render advisory opinions with respect to this article of the charter. Advisory opinion shall be rendered pursuant to a written request of any elected or appointed officer or employee concerned and may be rendered pursuant to the request of any person. The commission shall publish its advisory opinions with such deletions as may be necessary to prevent disclosure of the identity of the persons involved.

The commission shall recommend appropriate disciplinary action against officers and employees found to have violated the standards of conduct established by this article of the charter or by ordinance. The appointing authority shall promptly notify the commission of the action taken on the recommendation.

Section 9-204. Clean Water, Natural Lands and Affordable Housing Fund –

1. In adopting each fiscal year's budget and capital program, the council shall appropriate a minimum of one percent (1%) of the certified real property tax revenues to a fund known as the Clean Water, Natural Lands and Affordable Housing Fund.
2. Half of the moneys in this fund, or ½ % of certified real property tax revenues, shall be utilized for purchasing or otherwise acquiring lands or property entitlements for land conservation in the city for the following purposes: protecting watershed lands to preserve water quality and water supply; preserving forests, beaches, coastal areas and agricultural lands; public outdoor recreation and education, including access to beaches and mountains; preservation of historic or culturally important land areas and sites; protection of significant habitats or ecosystems, including buffer zones; conserving land in order to reduce erosion, floods, landslides, and runoff; and, acquiring disabled and public access to public land, and open space.
3. The other half of moneys in this fund, or ½% of certified real property tax revenues, shall be utilized to provide and maintain affordable housing for persons earning less than 50% of the median household income in the city for the following purposes: provision and expansion of affordable housing and suitable living environments principally for persons of low and moderate income through land acquisition, development, construction, and maintenance of affordable housing for sale or for rental, provided that the housing remains affordable in perpetuity.
4. The moneys in this fund may also be used for the payment of interest, principal, and premium, if any, due with respect to bonds issued subsequent to enactment and pursuant to Sections 3-116 or 3-117, in whole or in part, for the purposes enumerated in paragraphs 2 and 3 of this section and for the payment of costs associated with the purchase, redemption or refunding of such bonds. The payment, of interest, principal and premium, if any, includes bonds issued subsequent to enactment of this section.
5. At any given time, no more than five percent (5%) of this fund shall be used for administrative expenses.
6. Any balance remaining in this fund at the end of any fiscal year shall not lapse, but shall remain in the fund, accumulating from year to year. The moneys in this fund shall not be used for any purpose except those listed in this section.
7. The council shall by ordinance establish procedures for the administration and expenditure of moneys in this fund. The appropriations to this fund shall not substitute, but shall be in addition to, those appropriations historically made for the purposes stated in this section.
